Foreword

THE LD '31 has run its course, and for us there is no tomorrow here — only the lingering memories of a happy yesterday. In publishing this book we've tried to relate a complete history of our four years in Plainfield High School — our failures, our successes, our disappointments, and our joys. And if we've helped to tell other students, alumni, and friends of our Alma Mater these things, we will have succeeded in our purpose and our efforts will not have been in vain.

DOROTHY J. GLAESER.

The New Adventure

The "New Adventure" soared into the air;
Then faltered, and again swooped down to earth,
Reluctant to forsake the hangar's girth,
Of wrathful skies and storms too well-aware.
She soared again, resolved to do and dare,
As confidence in self found full rebirth.
The mighty task remained to prove her worth,
And on she flew, defying the sun's glare.

So we, departing from familiar things,
Must venture out upon the world unknown,
Test knowledge gained in this scholastic field.
We waver, doubtful of our untried wings,
E'er mindful that we must progress alone,
With this our slogan, "Strive, but never yield!"

FLORENCE GOLDSMITH, '31.

"She was good, and she was fair."

Hi-Tri 1, 2; Radio Shorthand Contest 4; State Penmanship Contest 4; Field Day Pageant 4; Chapel Usher 4.

Study is the road to success, Elizabeth. Here's hoping you don't get stuck in the mud, or have to detour. If you don't, you'll have all anybody ever desired.

19 Milestone 51

FREDERICK BROKAW

"Fritz"

General A

Undecided

"The world's a funny proposition after all."

Cheerfulness personified is Fred. In fact Fred is so full of humor, that we think he will be the eminent owner of a feeble-minded circus someday.

JOHN BROWN

"Jack"

General A

Business

"There ain't no sense in getting riled."

Johnnie can either be seen with a grin or growl on his face, but his grins so overbalance his grouches that the grouches are hardly noticed.

JEAN CADY

"Jackie"

General

Business

"The mystery of mysteries."

Another "Welcome Stranger" sign has been hung out for Jean. For three years disillusioned in that big, bad city of New York, she is steadily growing bigger and better in this healthful country atmosphere.

ESTELLE CARKHUFF

Commercial

Business

"Quiet and sweet, and exceedingly neat."

Hi-Tri 1, 2, 4; Usher Squad 4; Year Book Board 4; Radio Shorthand Contest 3; Remington and Underwood pins; President of Basketball Club 4; O. G. A. Certificate; Decorating Committee 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; (Captain 1 and 4) Red and Blue Basketball Team; Tennis 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 3, 4; (Captain 4) Red and Blue Hockey Team; Gym Exhibition; Track 3, 4.

Estelle is among the best in athletics and studies. Without her typing ability, this book would not be so uniform as it is.

1931 Milestone 31

MARGARET CARSON

"Midge"

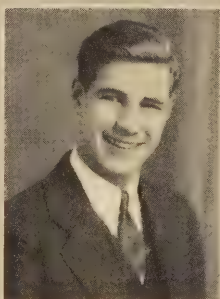

General

Undecided

*"Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace."*

Hi-Tri 1, 2, 3; Field Day Pageant; Room Decorating Committee 2, 3.

Here from all appearances we have a very quiet miss, but not so when you know her. She is full of humor and we are sorry that we have not come to know her better.

ROBERT S. CLARKE

"Bob"

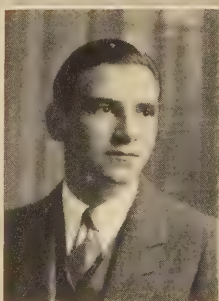

General

North Carolina State

"Thou hast slept well. Awake!"

Electrical Board 2, 3; Junior Track Manager; Baseball 2, 3; Thrift Council 5; Echoing Hearts, 3.

Bob will probably be the world's greatest electrician, or engineer, or mathematician, or something like that. He sure has a knack with any electrical apparatus. He's a peach of a fellow, too.

HENRY ELWOOD DERR

"Woodie"

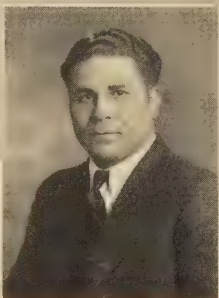

General

Undecided

"A man polished to the nails."

Baseball 1; Class Baseball 3

A prince of a fellow if there ever was one. Gobs of smiles, personality, and humor. Woody is certainly one of the best dancers in P. H. S. and a very natural fellow too. That's one of the reasons he has so many friends and admirers.

GINO DI DARIO

"The Great Di"

General A

Undecided

"The Prince of Wales and I must have some private conference."

Varsity Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain Chess Team 3; B. A. A. Board 3, 4; Student Patrol 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2.

Oooh! Lookit dat big strong he-man comin' down the hall! I'll bet he played Varsity Football. Gino did play and besides that he received honorable mention on the all-state team.

GERTRUDE FAUCETT

"Tude"

Commercial

Business

"She spoke so kindly unto all."

Basketball 2; Hi-Tri 1, 2; Field Day Pageant '30; Life Saving 4; Room Decorating Committee 2, 3; Banking Officer 2.

Gertrude's specialty is acting as a sort of military aid to the faculty. She takes care of all kinds of classes and is a very entertaining instructoress. How about it, Gertrude? Like to be one?

BERNICE JANET FERTIG

Classical

Barnard

"Her heart was ever neutral."

Gym Pageant 3; Dramatic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Play 3; Decorating Committee 3.

Bernice, the quiet, the studious, has made a name for herself in High School. Whenever we see Bernice, we may be sure that she is going somewhere to do something. More power to her, for she has been on the honor-roll quite regularly.

FLORENCE GOLDSMITH

"Flo"

Classical

N. J. C. College

"I dreamt I dwelt in marble halls."

Member of Dramatic Society.

Florence is one of the most intelligent girls we have. She has maintained high grades in all her subjects and is, we would say, quite successful. Florence, we all wish you the best of luck in everything you undertake.

WILLIAM L. HERRMAN

"Bill"

Scientific

Business

"One virtue he had in perfection, which was knowledge."

Police Officer on City Government Day.

Although Bill does not make as much noise as some of his colleagues, he is quite a student and a scholar. Bill has copped as many as three A's at one time. He has a place reserved for him on the Honor Roll.

1931 Milestone 31

ALMA M. HOFMANN

"Al" "Bunny"

General

Business

"A demure and gentle lass."

Ernest R. Ackerman Prize 2; Typing 1; Hi-Tri 1, 2, 3; Gym Pageant 3.

We only hear Alma's name when Mr. Best reads it from the Honor Roll. She is much too quiet.

SUSAN HORWITZ

"Sue"

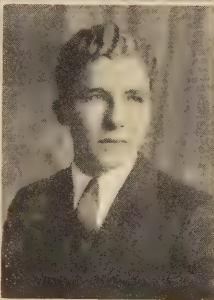

Commercial

Business

"No man is lord of anything."

Basketball 1, 2; Gym Pageant 3; Usher 4.

Sue has a passion for beets, either vegetables or otherwise. However, the vegetables are forgotten when one mentions "heart beats" to her. When Sue isn't blushing, she has two dimples that certainly inspire heart beats, so there we are back to beats again, but if you don't believe that one, ask Gino!

ALAN MARTIN JOHNSON

"Alie"

Scientific

Undecided

"Woman delights me not."

Alan is the carefree boy who thinks about today and lets tomorrow take care of itself. Why worry, Alan, tomorrow you may find a million dollars and won't have to worry at all.

HELEN JOHNSON

"Helen"

Commercial

Business

"It is better to have bluffd and passed."

Swimming Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3; Greek Fantasy 1; Musical Comedy 4; Hi-Tri 2, 4; Gym Pageant 3.

Helen can swim, dance, and sing, and do each with admirable ability. She is the jolliest girl you would ever wish to know. If you are in doubt as to which Helen to ask for, ask for the one with the silvery voice.

19 Milestone 31

MEYER KALISH

"Mike"

General

Temple

"He was a 'Dreamer of the Days.'"

Reserve Team Football 2; Class Basketball 2; Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Band 2, 3; Band Uniform Committee 3; Class Football 3, 4.

Here is a persistent musician. Meyer has been playing the saxophone for the past three or four years and plays quite well. Besides that he works in the afternoon and also goes to school, strange to say.

FRANK KOZIK

General

Undecided

"He was a scholar, and a good one."

Frank is another one of our studious members who persists in obtaining a high position on the Honor Roll. He is a friend to everyone and we know we will miss his cheerful smile. We feel that your success is assured, Frank.

ELIZABETH KURITSKY

"Betty"

General C

Newark Normal

"A kind face is a good face."

Gym Pageant; Dramatic Club 4; Basketball 1.

Here is another girl with a sunny disposition and disarming frankness, who is sure to win your confidence, and the odds are three to one you'll enjoy her company.

ANNA KWINT

Commercial

Undecided

"A kindly smile to all she lent."

Anna works diligently at all she tries but, then, she is serious-minded and knows that is the only way to get ahead.

1931 Milestone 31

ROBERT MacDonald

"Bob"

General

Business

*"And when a lady's in the case
You know all other things give place."*

Student Patrol; Track 1; Orchestra Manager; Property Manager of Junior Play; Musical Comedy 3.

Any one who wishes to learn to dance should see Bob. He is the best dancer for '31. Bob also bangs the ivory floor with par-excellence. Bob, if you ever get in a rut, open a studio and teach dancing and piano lessons.

EDNA ROBERTS

General C

Nursing

"She is not simply good, but good for something."

If this Senior Class had a "Quiet Club," we believe Edna would be the president. Even if we haven't heard from you, we're sure, Edna, that you deserve any credit given you. (Remember that a laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market.)

DOROTHY ROBINSON

"Dot" "Dottie"

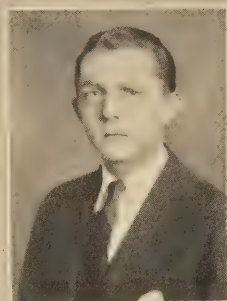

Commercial

Normal School

"A mind content, a conscience clear."

Basketball 1, 2, 3; Hockey 3; Debating Society 1; Student Patrol 4; Gym Pageant.

If anyone is looking for a real honest-to-goodness girl, they certainly won't have to go any further than Dorothy. We also understand Dottie is quite an athlete.

ERNEST K. ROBINSON

"Kim" "Ernie"

General

Business

"One ear it heard, at the other out it went."

Class Track Team 3; Class Football 3; College League Basketball 3, 4.

Ernie's policy is never to worry but to let life live itself. He has backed our class teams with his ability and proved himself to be an excellent athlete. If worry makes one old, Ernie is exceedingly young.

AMOS FRANCIS SIMMONS

Commercial

Business

"Small service is time service."

Stand back, girls, Amos has no time for you or anything feminine, so you don't even rate with him. Amos is quite a pool and billiard shark and also can play a fine game of basketball. These are only a few of the many things he can do.

MARGARET MAE SIMONDS

"Peg" "Marg"

General

Undecided

"A penny for your thoughts."

Debating Society 1; Hi-Tri 1, 2, 3; Tennis 1; Greek Fantasy 1; Field Day 4.

Here's a girl who knows that a smile goes a long way. Can she cook? We'll ask the lucky man.

LILA THOMPSON

General C Muhlenberg Hosp. School of Nursing

"With a smile that is child-like."

Lila is not a native of our fair city and so must be exceptionally adaptable and easily suited to strange climates, for she certainly is one of us now.

BESSIE VELINSKY

General

N. Y. U. — Secretarial

"Silence has many advantages."

Field Day 1; Gym Pageant 4.

Bessie is a hard person to get acquainted with, but it is worth the trouble. Once you know her, she is very amusing and entertaining though all unknown to herself, strange to say.

19 Milestone 31

FREDERIC T. WARD

"Fred"

General

Aviation

"In my youth I never acted thus."

Holy Trinity High School 1, 2; Christmas Decorating Committee 3; Glee Club 4; Student Patrol 5; Musical Comedy 4; Orchestra Manager 4; Student Government Day 4; Usher Squad 3, 4.

Fred is a new arrival in our class, and we are glad to have him. He's worked hard this year managing the orchestra. Maybe he will be a leader someday, who can tell?

HERMAN WEINREICH

"Herm"

General

Undecided

"I'll not take 'no' for an answer."

Band 3, 4; Orchestra 3, 4; Electrical Squad 3, 4.

Herman has worked hard and we admire the way he handles those drumsticks. No doubt he knows how to put away drumsticks along with dressing, etc. Well, well. They do it in the best of families, so good luck to you, Herman!

HELEN WRUBLESKI

Commercial

Music Course at Rutgers

"Tell the truth and shame the devil."

Basketball Team 1, 2; Track Team 2; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Gym Pageant 4; Certificate in State Penmanship Contest.

It takes industrious practice to learn to play a violin, but Helen certainly has succeeded. She does not stop at being accomplished with the violin, either.

SADIE ZAGORIA

Commercial

Business

"You see that I remain the same."

Field Day 4.

A smile, then a laugh always brightens her path. Sadie never lets her companions become gloomy. We are sure that after she leaves us, she will continue to spread her cheer.

"Heroes?"

"Freaks!"

"Who's behind the camera?"

"It's a fake"

"Waiting for something?"

Football

IN SPITE of the fact that nine lettermen reported for service and prospects for a season as successful as in '29 were bright, the team went down to defeat against North Plainfield, Morristown, and Montclair in the first three games.

The team hit its stride, however, and came back strong with a string of victories, interrupted only by a defeat by East Orange and a tie with New Brunswick. The New Brunswick game came as a distinct surprise as N. B. H. S. was rated at least two touchdowns better than Plainfield. Only the Big Red Team's fighting spirit saved us from this defeat.

Basketball

ALTHOUGH the basketball season was not a success, with Plainfield winning only five of the scheduled eighteen games, the team did show itself to be a scrappy combination which, when clicking together, was almost irresistible. North Plainfield after dropping the first game, won the city series with ease by winning the second and final games. The closeness of most of their defeats was the team's only consolation.

PLAINFIELD started her season with a victory over Somerville, but lost the next five games to Lawrenceville, Nutley, Bound Brook, New Brunswick, and Long Branch. In spite of these defeats, the team has done fairly well as there are few lettermen back from last year. Everything points to a more successful ending of a season that has started rather disastrously.

THE track team is evidently on the road to a successful season, although they didn't place in the Penn Relays. Plainfield's representatives on the cinder path have already defeated Bound Brook, a school of no mean ability taking into consideration the number of lettermen on the squad. It is predicted that Plainfield will win eight out of the nine meets on the schedule.

Swimming

THE SWIMMING SEASON for 1931 was one of the most successful ever experienced by our team. A total of nine dual meets were held, Plainfield winning six and losing three. In the State Meet, with eleven schools competing, Plainfield tied for second place. The relay team took second, and Crane and Rugen took second in the "200" and the diving, respectively. School records this year were made by the relay team, composed of Hartlein, Van Mater, Crane, and Ring; by Hartlein in the "40" and the "100"; and by Ring in the backstroke.

RED AND BLUE TEAMS

LAST year a new plan for our athletics was inaugurated. At the end of the season of each sport, a red and a blue team was chosen by the teacher in charge. These teams were composed of girls in each class who were especially adept in that sport. Only teams for Hockey and Basketball were chosen last year. This year, teams for soccer were added.

Dramatic Society

THE DRAMATIC SOCIETY met every Monday morning under the chairmanship of Ethel Polsky, when attention was given to stage technique, voice training, and reading and study of plays.

We owe to them that delightful Christmas Play, "Sparks—An Inbetween," presented by members of the society. The play was unusual in its combination of appropriate Christmas theme and great humor. The scene was laid in an Old Ladies' Home with the maid, Sparks (Mildred O'Mahoney) as the heroine and Jim (Walter Romer), the furnaceman no less, as the prospective hero. The plot, equally unique, was the highly amusing but embarrassing question of how to answer poor Spark's letter to Santa Claus asking for a man and a kiss, which incidentally sheds some light on Mr. Santa's problem.

The various kind-hearted but eccentric old ladies were very capably portrayed by Ruth Whitford, Ethel Polsky, Alice Lloyd, Harriet Doane, Celia Phillips, Sarah Polsky, and Eleanor Irwin.

The play was received by an enthusiastic audience, in recognition of the really good acting turned in by the various members of the cast under the direction of Miss Le Fevre, to whom we owe the success of all of our past dramatic efforts.

Senior Play

ALL OF US who are graduating have at one time or another experienced that elation which comes from a piece of work well done; and certain it is that the members of the cast had due cause to be elated when the curtain was drawn on the last act of the Senior play.

"The Return of Peter Grimm" was presented to a capacity audience, and members of the faculty and others who knew what they were talking about were unstinted in their praise. Miss Le Fevre again showed her remarkable talent for choosing the right person for the right part and for drilling mere seniors, who knew little or nothing about acting, into a cooperative group.

The leading role, that of the lovable old Peter Grimm, was interpreted with sympathetic appreciation by Mortimer Rosenbaum. Catherine, his ward, torn between her desire to carry out the wishes of her dead benefactor and the longing of her own heart, was very convincingly played by Ruth Whitford.

Randall Saflund, as the self-centered nephew Frederick, easily fooled his old uncle by his apparent compliance. Walter Romer as the earnest Dr. MacPherson sustained his role very ably throughout.

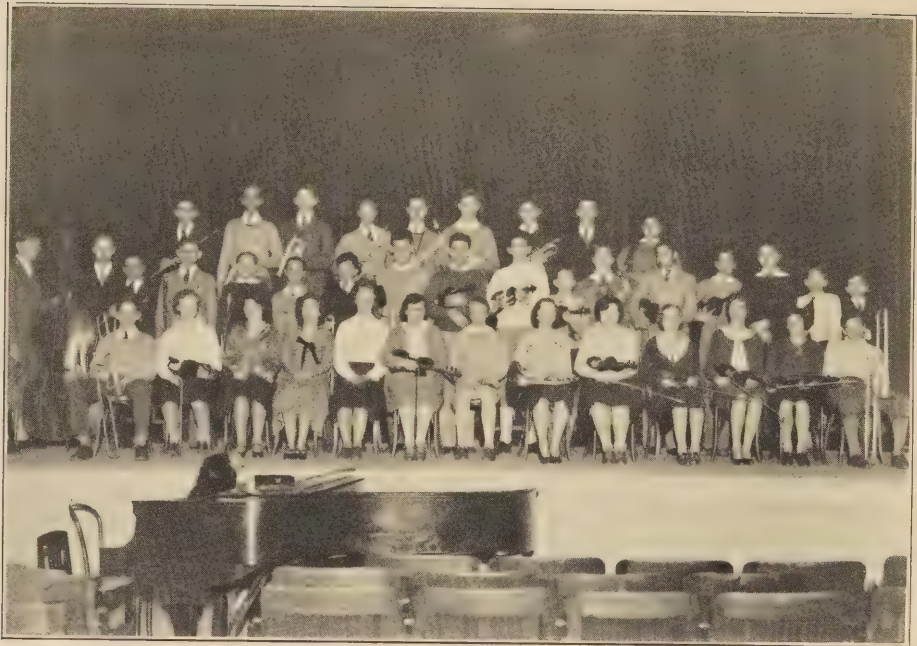

The Rev. Batholomey and wife, played respectively by Hugh Sweeney and Sara Polsky, evoked the laughter of the audience by their well-drawn characterizations. Col. Lawton, George Morgan, also contributed much to the humor in the second act.

Arthur Hopper, Jr., a freshman in the school, was a happy choice as the appealing William, for in every respect was he fitted for the part.

Jas. Hartman, the successful Senator, was well presented by Richard Mar-der. Audrey Rasmussen as Marta, and Anton Krog as the clown, were equally satisfactory.

Senior Class History

AGE OF INNOCENCE

FOUR YEARS AGO great things began to happen in P. H. S. As we reminisce, we consider the mighty accomplishments in that eventful year for P. H. S., the arrival of the '31 class. Being innocent, we incurred the wrath of our many teachers, which resulted in our inopportune introduction to our most beloved Dean, Miss Moore. Then having been shown right from wrong we pursued our course through the first year under the able guidance of our President, Richard Beals, and our Vice-President, Ted O'Brien. At the annual Freshman Reception we were taken under the protecting wing of the mighty upper-classmen. Then we were faced by a great crisis—the Mid-Year Exams. Having safely passed through this ordeal we romped in the diamond and won the interclass baseball series. And then, like the proverbial quiet before the storm, we went through the last two months before the exams without any important events taking place. At last our exams arrived, and most of us sailed successfully through them into the harbor of the Sophomore Class. Thus endeth our first year at Plainfield High School.

AGE OF FOOLISHNESS

Then after we had gone through our first year enjoying the thrill of high school life, many of us decided to settle down and accomplish what we came for—learning. Our passive school days were over; we were now starting our active ones. We had advanced from the age of innocence into the age of foolishness. Then again came out annual elections and (Mirabile Dictu) Ted O'Brien was chosen as our President, and Ralph Kroll as our Vice-President. Under this able leadership we sailed through our Sophomore Year, all unconscious to the worries of the upper-classmen, the Seniors, little thinking that we were to be burdened with the same worries in two more years. Moreover, in order to keep up our record in sports we supplied two of our heroes to the Football Team of "'28"—Gino DiDario and Walter Hienzer. These boys brought honors to our class through their fine playing. Our Track Team also won the interclass track meet. At last our inevitable examinations approached and, strangely, we were struck with a fever for studying. Again most of us sailed successfully through them into the harbor of the Junior Class. Thus endeth our second year at Plainfield High School.

AGE OF RECKONING

Then came the hardest of the four years—the Junior year—the year that makes or breaks the majority of students. We had made one step forward from the age of foolishness to the age of reckoning. To prove that we had set out to work we held our elections before the end of September. Again we chose Ted O'Brien for President, with Bill Streeton as Vice-President. To be sure, we had advanced in the standing of Sports as well as of Education. Our boys triumphed in the interclass Football Championship, being unbeaten and unscored upon. We also placed Gino DiDario, Bennett Monaghan, Ted Larew, Dan Van Mater, Albert Israelski, Al Fusco, Ed Traphagen and Cy Levin on the Varsity Football Team. Many of our boys made the Varsity Basketball, Baseball and Swimming Teams also. Our girls were very active in Hockey, Tennis, Basketball and their other sports. Then, giving the local talent a chance to shine, the Junior Class gave two fine plays, "Finders Keepers" and "The Unruly Member." These plays were so successful that "Finders Keepers" was held over and given in the Senior Dramatic Tournament. Before we realized it the evening of the Cane Rush arrived, that fateful evening which decides, sometimes correctly and sometimes incorrectly, which is the better of the two classes. Well, to make a long story short, the Seniors finally won the Cane Rush after a hard battle, although we won the Boxing and the Rush for the Cane itself. That spring our Track Team astounded the school again and won the interclass track meet. Then during the Spring we gave our Junior Prom and, to say the least, it was a crowning success and an excellent way to end up the social activities of the Junior Class. At last we were troubled with 'xaminitus, and after a short illness many of us recovered to sail successfully into the harbor of the Senior Class. Thus endeth our third year at Plainfield High School.

AGE OF WISDOM

Behold, we now advanced to the heights of our Freshman dreams—the long-sought-for Senior year. Somehow we felt that we were burdened with more responsibility and, therefore, we had more self-confidence. True to our previous habits we again held our election around October. We re-elected Ted O'Brien, with Edgar Vardon as Vice-President. We had taken our final step forward from the Age of Reckoning to the Age of Wisdom. Our girls, inspired by their graduation to the Senior Class, immediately went out and won the interclass Tennis Tournament. Then the boys, in turn inspired by the girls, again won the interclass Football Championship. Just before Christmas vacation we roasted the Juniors; and how we roasted them will long be remembered by us, if not by them. After Christmas vacation we settled down to a grind so that we might pass the Mid-Year Exams with good marks—some of us did; others didn't. Once again, as in olden days, we treated the school to an excellent play, "The Return of Peter Grimm." This play packed the auditorium with students, parents and other admirers of the school. Finally, in an effort to gain admission to good colleges, we settled down to work about four months before graduation. The rest of our history you know: how we went through our examinations, and how we received our diplomas. At last we have arrived at the end of our long and tedious journey, and deep down in our hearts we will cherish that dear old school for which we have fought so valiently and so often.

CY LEVIN,
DAVID GURINSKY.

NEWS SELECTIONS FROM ALL OF THE MODERN NEWSPAPERS, INCLUDING THE PLAINFIELD PROPHECY, JUNE, 1941

GRAND OPENING OF NEW PICTURE TO TAKE PLACE TONIGHT

Stars To Appear In Person

"Purple Passion," starring the popular idol, Richard Dickinson, supported by that vivacious newcomer to the screen, Ruth Whitford, is scheduled to have its gala opening here tonight at 8 P. M. The picture reaches, beyond all doubt, the highest peak ever attained in any similar production. The comedy roles are most ably taken by the delightful favorites Georgia Gallane and James Brandon. Several of the leading characters are to be present at the opening and may even appear on the stage.

"I DO NOT CHOOSE TO RUN" SAYS GOVERNOR GLAESER

Will Not Reveal Her Reason For Refusal

New Jersey's first woman governor today confirmed the rumor that she would not run for a third term, by a formal statement to a representative of this newspaper. "I have definitely made up my mind," she said, "not to run for a third term as governor. Though my second term has been a very successful and happy one, I do not wish to run again."

Friends and former campaign managers of Governor Glaeser are deeply disappointed in what they believe is the sacrifice of a wonderful career, but they hope that when she says "no," being a woman, she will eventually mean "yes."

FAIR LAW-BREAKER RELEASED WITH REPRIMAND

Miss Margery Loizeaux, of this city, was arraigned today before Judge Hugh Sweeny on charges of flying her plane too low over the city, exceeding the speed limit of 125 miles per hour, reckless piloting, and failing to stop at a "Stop" sign. The defendant pleaded guilty and was released with a warning to do all of her stunt flying at a higher altitude.

EMINENT PHYSICIAN STARTLES SCIENTIFIC WORLD WITH DISCOVERY

Plainfield High Graduate Made Famous

Dr. Edwin O'Brien, noted physician and scientist, has notified all medical authorities that after many years of constant research and experiments he has at last discovered the cure for a well-known heart disease called "Amor Melbae." Dr. O'Brien finds added joy in his discovery because for many years he has been one of the worst victims of this disease. He stated today in a report to the National Medical Society, of which the Honorable Ralph Kroll, M.D., is the president, and Walter Romer the vice-president, that he first became interested in the subject while in high school, and only through persistent efforts and experiments was he able to find the cause and cure.

OUR DAILY BEAUTY ARTICLE

By GERTRUDE COLLING Plainfield's Most Famous Beauty

Many of the letters I have received lately ask for advice in making the eyes large and lovely. The best method I know for beautifying the eyes, and one which I myself have used for years, is to exercise the lids frequently. I am sure that all who use this method will have success, especially if the lid exercise is accompanied by a rolling of the eye.

Another question many of my readers ask is, "How can I get natural color in my cheeks?" Now, dear readers, the only solution to this problem can be found in my special combination of complexion-freshener and rouge. Just ask for it at any drug store or cosmetic counter, mentioning the name "Gertrude Colling," and the clerk will be glad to sell it to you for the trifling sum of $3.50.

Tomorrow I shall discuss my own method of easy reducing—no dieting or exercising. For fuller details send for my free booklet, "Easy Methods of Reducing."

GERTRUDE COLLING.

LATEST NEWS OF DANCE MARATHON IN NEW YORK

Dancers Are Still Going Strong

Aside from great fatigue and weariness the few remaining contestants in the annual dance marathon, which at 8 o'clock this evening will enter its tenth night, are still going strong. The four remaining couples are: Dorothy Keenan and Robert MacDonald, Frances Bradley and William Streeton, Becky Dunn and Elwood Derr, and Helen Whitford and George Morgan.

The dancers have a short and much-needed rest period at the end of every two hours. At this time they are also given a little nourishment.

Popular opinion is that Dorothy Keenan and Robert MacDonald will be the winning couple. These two have long been considered as ranking among the foremost dancers on Broadway. Their fame began during high school days when, we understand, they were voted the best dancers in the senior class.

PRINCE OF WALES FALLS AT LAST

Rumored To Marry Well-Known American Girl

At last the woman-hating Prince of Wales has fallen (not from a horse this time). The cause of his downfall is a pretty, dark-haired American girl, whose name is Miss Frances Bradley, and rumor has it that the Prince is completely enslaved by her charms. They met at a dance given on board the private yacht of Mr. George Romer, wealthy New York banker, while the Prince was visiting in America. Cupid must have shot his arrow immediately, for after having been introduced to Miss Bradley he hardly left her side all evening. Since then the charming debutante has been besieged by telephone calls, gifts of flowers and candy, and numerous letters. Although both His Highness and Miss Bradley have refused interviews with the press, and have made no public statements regarding their future plans, the belief is that their engagement will be announced in the near future.

Senator Repp has just completed a trip to Florida. He says that he is now ready to get back to work.

NEW SKYSCRAPER DISCUSSED

Last Will and Testament

KNOW YE ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT; We, rightly known as the great, honorable, noble, most famed, and illustrious Class of 1931, being presumptuously possessed, as yet, of our own sound minds (both right and left) and aware of what we are about to do, do hereby solemnly and in strict concordance with and obeisance to all laws, rituals, rules, regulations, and commandments of Moses, Solon, and other law givers, frame and compound this noble document which it doth please us to class as our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

With a fervent hope that this document will, without unnecessary law disputes, satisfy the greedy expectations of our most fortunate successors, we hereby dispose of our property, both real and unreal (of which we have plenty) and all other possessions which we cannot take with us, in this generous fashion:

TO DEAR OLD P. H. S. WE LEAVE —

II. Miss More, slightly piqued after four years of boy and girl chasing but still doing her duty as several seniors can testify.

TO THE FACULTY WE LEAVE —

I. Some grief at the loss of such a brilliant class.

II. The impossible task of finding our equals.

SPECIAL BEQUESTS —

I. To Mr. Hauck we leave: A fur-lined cap lest he catch cold. (Due to the failure in its purpose, we have discontinued the practice of leaving him hair producer.)

II. To Miss Moore we leave: A brand new eraser to clean off the black fingerprints from the white walls of her new office.

III. To Miss Bond we leave: One year's subscription for the "Daily News."

IV. To Mr. Beers we leave: One minute's ride on a light wave.

V. To Miss Porter we leave: A newly invented set of 4-wheel vocal brakes.

VI. To Mr. Cook we leave: A pair of spats, a cane, and a derby.

VII. To Mr. Best, our principal, we leave: The unusual honor of executing our wishes expressed in this document.

1931 Milestone 31

TO OUR IMMEDIATE SUCCESSORS, THE CLASS OF 1932, WE LEAVE —

I. Our most prized possession, the name SENIOR. Guard it well, oh most insignificant of Juniors; allow not a stain to fall on this most noble of banners lest we turn in our graves.

II. All the Senior privileges (if there are any).

III. Our noble achievements as standards for which we work.

IV. A fitting and proper name for their year book.

V. The burdensome task of writing a year book. (What a job!)

TO THE SOPHOMORES WE LEAVE—

I. The undying honor and privilege of being called Upper Classmen.

II. A comforting thought "Cheer up, the worst is yet to come."

TO THE FRESHMEN WE LEAVE —

I. The right to abuse Freshmen, being now emancipated themselves.

II. The privilege of sitting in the auditorium at the same level with grown-ups.

TO THE INCOMING YOUNGSTERS WE LEAVE —

I. A most hearty welcome.

II. Our whole-hearted sympathy. (They'll need it.)

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and fingerprints on this fifteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.
